

District 03-Coconino County DCMC Report
Kyle H., DCMC
December 14, 2010

Hi everyone! I hope everyone is doing well. While it is a bit dry out there, I hope you all have a blessed holiday season.

There have been no DCMC activities this last month. My sponsors have always told me that there has to be balance in everything. Service work is no different. My life has been somewhat challenging of late with a death in my family, getting used to my husbands new work, dealing with teenage stuff with my kids, preparing for grandmotherhood, working on new job responsibilities myself, and just life in general. Hence, I had to take a step back and deal with life for a while.

26 or 27th
*I do have upcoming plans to have another meeting in Page the end of January and will be participating in the Area Inventory in February. 2011 State Convention activities have been very quiet as well, but we are going to get going in January with a meeting on January 23rd at Noon at the Alano Club. But for now, things are quiet.

As always, I am available to assist you and your groups in any way that I can.

In Service,
