

District 03-Coconino County DCMC Report
Kyle H., DCMC
April 12, 2011

Hi everyone! I hope everyone is doing well.

The Pre-Conference assembly was a very busy and informative service weekend. While the main room was hot at times, it didn't slow down the business we had to get done. I was very surprised that we completed the business on Saturday, but was gratified to see that while there were definitely split opinions on the topics, there was no bad behavior on anyone's part. It was good to get back in the swing of things and I learned a tremendous amount. I am excited to hear about the conference when we get together for the Post-Conference Assembly.

Fliers for the post-conference assembly were out and I encourage you to get your rooms reserved and get registered. The room rate is a lower rate for Friday and then is higher on Saturday, so room sharing is going to be essential. I am already booked to share a room again with the DCM that I shared with in Casa Grande. Just as a reminder, Post Conference is in Globe, the August Assembly will be in Tucson, and then first ever 2 day November Assembly will be in Yuma. That will be the election/budget assembly.

It is hard to believe that we are in the second year of the rotation, but November will be here before we know it. I encourage you all to start to think about what you would like to do next rotation in your service lives. Talk to folks in other positions and see what is out there. If you are interested in moving down into Area service, talk to the Area folks holding different positions and get some ideas of what is out there. Get with your service sponsors and pray on it. It will be here before we know it!

I was scheduled to visit the Women's meeting in Williams this month, but that needed to be rescheduled so I anticipate visiting their group in the next month or so. I had the opportunity to meet with the ~~Prime Time Live~~ ^{Williams Forum} group prior to the assembly and talk to them about the topics and service structure. I will be in Page next week and am going to try to connect with folks up there again.

For financial accounting regarding reimbursement for the Pre-Conference Assembly, I am requesting a total reimbursement of $215.35. Breakdown of this cost includes 384 miles roundtrip to and from the hotel in Casa Grande. I shared a room with another DCM from Phoenix and that total cost was $91.51. Remaining funds in the DCMC budget at this time is $684.65.

2011 State Convention activities have been moving forward as well. Our next meeting is on April 30th at 1pm. Please see my Convention report for more details.

As always, I am available to assist you and your groups. I have my calendar with me, so if I can be of assistance, please let me know.
